

Saint Clair Shores Green Fair in the Park

When: Saturday September 25th, 2010 10am-6pm

Where: Saint Clair Shores Veterans' Memorial Park at Masonic and Jefferson

What is Green Fair in the Park?

The Saint Clair Shores 2010 Green Fair in the Park is taking place this year through the efforts of the SCS department of Parks and Recreation and a coalition of other civic organizations. The organizers of this year's Green Fair are working to bring together and showcase a wide variety of green businesses, green organizations and conventional businesses utilizing green business practices or promoting green living to embrace the trend toward a more ecologically sound lifestyle for people in Michigan and Saint Clair Shores in particular. Saint Clair Shores' first Green Fair in the Park will include live music, speakers on environmental issues, children's activities, Eco-friendly products, workshops and educational programs on how to live a green life,

The SCS 2010 Green Fair in the Park will offer 5 categories of Green fun:

Food and Farm- Will Include information, resources and products/services concerning farmers markets, the benefits of local food, organic gardening, home food preservation, as well as being gentle on the environment with your diet.

Green Living- Includes information, resources and products/services concerning living a green lifestyle, this entails energy conservation, water conservation reducing your carbon footprint, eliminating toxic materials from your home, waste reduction, and residential renewable energy options.

Kids Education- Interactive and educational fun for kids.

Entertainment- Music lineup to be announced, speakers on environmental issues and a documentary tent hosted by Transition SCS.

Health/Wellness- Products and services that help keep you healthy and enhance your sense of well-being as well as information on how to living a green, healthy lifestyle. There will be a section dedicated to pets as well.
